GUARD Insurance Group writes policies via several subsidiaries. Through years of experience devoted exclusively to this line, we have acquired a high degree of knowledge and expertise that is reflected in the efficiency and effectiveness of our business systems. We have, in fact, outperformed our peers in key industry-standard categories such as loss experience throughout most of the past decade.

As an organization, GUARD is dedicated to achieving customer satisfaction, and we consider our high policyholder retention from year to year to be one of the most critical measures of our success. Our ability to achieve a significant amount of controlled growth in sales across a 10-year period is another! This excellent track record in continually attracting and retaining employers seeking coverage and producers to represent us suggests we are doing our job well!

Today, GUARD writes policies for thousands of businesses of all sizes in many states across the country. We make our coverage available to a diverse range of employers through a carefully selected group of well-trained, professional independent agents and brokers located throughout our operating area.

For More Information

To learn more about the unique history of GUARD which was formed by two entrepreneurs from Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, with agency experience and the conviction that an insurance company could still be started "de novo," see Our Roots.
